

Jesus Calvillo Vice Chair / Affordable Housing Committee President

- He is from Mexican descent. Married for 26 years, father of two daughters, one son, grandfather of eight, and a proud foster parent.
- Jesus attended college for two years for Industrial drafting. He received diplomas for the following: Industrial electrician, High pressure boilers & building maintenance and ministerial Studies.
- Plus, Certification in a course for Chaplain, and for completing the Chicago Marathon.
- He worked as a maintenance mechanic for eight years, head janitor for 14 years and currently working as a licensed insurance agent.
- Owned and operated Angels Painting Company for five years.
- Also served as a Youth Leader, Treasurer and Board Member of North Lowell Church of God; Board Member of Project Impact not-for-profit organization; Youth Leader, Board Member of First Hispanic Church of God in Rockford; Youth Sports Director in the North Central Spanish District Youth Camp; and currently serving as the Director of Missions for First Hispanic Church of God in Rockford.

Love sports. GO CUBS!